

3 QUESTIONS TO FIND YOUR PURPOSE

Start by making a list of your interests, your current career path, your college major, and your future career goals. Then ask yourself these three questions about each of them. Which answers overlap? That's where you start to find your purpose.

1. WHY ARE YOU PASSIONATE ABOUT IT?

What specifically holds your interest?

2. WHAT IS THE RIDICULOUSLY SPECIFIC THING THAT GETS YOU EXCITED ABOUT IT?

Really narrow it down here. What about doing that particular thing lights you up?

3. WHAT DO YOU WANT YOUR DAY-TO-DAY WORK LIFE TO LOOK LIKE?

Where do you want to do your work? Who do you want to interact with?
